

Glamazons, Zombies and Vampires... Oh My....

Local designer and business entrepreneur creates a creepy fundraiser for Dogma Pet Rescue

Legend tells of a mischievous spirit who assume the identity of a little black dog in order to lure naïve and unsuspecting lost travelers into an outer-worldly ceremony said to be celebrated by Glamazon, vampires, zombies, winged gargoyles and fire-breathing clowns. Those who escape are never the same... but most are never seen again.....

TAMPA, FL. Interesting things happen when creative, out-of-the-box thinkers put their heads together and let their creative juices flow. Yet when the group consists of professional makeup artists, a production designer, a video artist, a web designer and their caffeine-fueled ringleaders, Johnna Guzman and Hendrickje Ewen, the results are nothing short of extraordinary.

Only four months after the hugely successful Alice in Wonderland themed birthday fundraiser for Dogma at the Heights, entrepreneur Guzman and her right-hand (wo)man are at it again. Through stubborn determination, hard work, and the generous donations of sponsors and volunteers, Guzman has planned a huge Halloween extravaganza on October 30, 9pm-3am, once again benefitting Dogma, a pet rescue. Guzman is seeking benefactors to help make this a party that TampaBay won't soon forget. VIP packages are available online.

Using the party theme "Monsters take over the Heights," Guzman and her co-conspirators dressed themselves and the Heights in the most frightening of finery to capture a video invitation/warning inspired by the legend. Now the video and a water-damaged diary posted on the website are the only clues guests will have of the revelations to come on the other side of the Heights wooden door.

For a $25 admission, $30 in October, $40 at the door, guests can share food, libations at four bars sponsored by the Bungalow and dance moves with ravenous vampires and zombies, statuesque Glamazons and many other ominous characters... and have the opportunity to join them. Professional special effects magicians will be on site to transform willing victims into sinister monsters.

A fashion show hosted by Monster Factory and over 40 performers, including Enigma Dance Crew and the Hula Monsters, will lure the crowd into a false sense of security. Don't let them fool you. The monsters want you to become one of them and they're offering a frightening incentive. Best costume can take home a prize package valued at $1200.

With haunted houses and scare zones, and Guzman at the helm of this "spooktacular" water-front celebration, Haunted Heights is destined to be the TampaBay Halloween "event" for the 21 and up set. Tickets are available online at www.hauntedheightstampa.com.
